75 Word Description

Island chef, Greg Aitken, has spent four years developing his award winning seafood chowder recipe to bring to market. Made with choice ingredients from the waters of Atlantic Canada and 100% natural flavoring, this preservative and trans fat free chowder is a delicious, healthy alternative to other commercial choices. Conveniently packaged in individual "boil-in-a-bag" servings, this product travels well, making it the perfect appetizer for your next Island function. It's not just chowder, it's gourmet.
